RUST 'N PIECES

November 2004 Number 11 Volume 27

ANTIQUE MOTORCYCLE CLUB OF MANITOBA P.O. Box 1074, Winnipeg, Manitoba, R3C 2X4

Next Club Meeting is 7:30 Tuesday, November 30,2004 at Woodhaven Community Club.

Minutes of the October Meeting

After the miserable weather we had at the end of the month only 4 bikes adorned the parking lot.

30 members turned up for the meeting together with 2 guests, Jerry's son & better half.

Our Pres, desperate to get back on his bike & ride, quickly brought the meeting to a subdued muttering.

First on the agenda was the Christmas do. Various places were suggested, these being: The Stagger Inn on Portage – prices coming.

Headingly $200 for room +$2.00 corkage +Food - Not in budget!!!!

Players Golf Course, food $11 -$19 per plate, no charge for room

ANAF Assiniboine, food $12 - $15 plus cash bar

As booking needed confirming ASAP, the members present agreed to leave it to the exec to confirm venue.

Date proposed will be Tuesday 21st December. Time & date to confirm.

A benefit was to be held for Lorraine Freeman. The club had been approached to donate a silent auction prize, & the Exec had made a decision on behalf of the club to do so. Richard purchased a DVD for the donation to the cause.

Tickets were on sale from Greg 7 many were purchased by those present.

Your Scribes turn & the only item was whether the CVMG had decided to jointly participate in the 2005 raily. Terry confirmed that a decision had not been reached due to a deadlock on the vote. They would be having a further vote at their November meeting. We reconfirmed the date of the rally as July 1st to 4th & notices would be going out to various mags & clubs for inclusion in their upcoming events sections.

The Treasurer was reintroduced to all.

He confirmed our bank balance was $2200, cheque to Parker Filmore had cleared so we were still Incorporated & the community hall rental cheque had also been cashed so we
