Editor's Note Continued

We enjoyed good food and good weather at our 27th annual corn roast. We greatly appreciate the effort put out by Pat and John and their family.

The day had some interesting and unexpected events. Ed Pauch had an engine seizure with his Bridgestone café racer. John Thompson had one of his leather bags ripped open when it came loose from his Norton Big Four. When he reached Lock Port there was a bungee cord hiding in his back wheel. Having to get the bag fixed is bad enough, but John lost the wine he had in it. I extend my condolences to both Ed and John.

Jim H.

Happy campers, Jerry and Carla Stubbington set up at the rally site.

Mike Baraschuk, with his Matchless G80 CS.
